The American Angus Association, 3201 Frederick Boulevard, St. Joseph, Missouri, will participate in premiums offered for open Division Angus breeding cattle Divisions according to the premium schedule based on the number of head shown. The premium assistance provided by the American Angus Association for participation in this show is in addition to the premiums offered by the show itself. The premium assistance should not be used to offset show expense and shall be included in the premium payments distributed by the show to the exhibitors. A minimum of 50 head must be shown in the open Division and 15 head must be shown in the junior division to receive American Angus Association premium participation for the following year. Premiums from the Association are paid only to registered Angus cattle and only if the registration number is a part of the show report provided to the Association. Therefore, all cattle should be registered at the time of entry to make certain they receive the Association's portion of premiums. The Association does not pay on championship, get-of-sire, junior get-of-sire or breeder six-head Divisions.

American Angus Open Show Division 506

Rules:

1. Exhibitors must have the original registration certificate issued by the American Angus Association available for inspection at the show for each animal or another current proof of ownership issued by the AAA pedigree look up. Any animal, upon check-in, which does not have a legible permanent identification mark (ear tattoo marks, freeze-branded marks or hot branded marks) corresponding to the permanent identification mark on the registration certificate, is ineligible to show. Once disqualified due to an incorrect or illegible permanent identification mark, animals cannot be re-identified (tattooed/branded) and rechecked at the show.
2. Any female shown with calf at side, the calf must be the cow's most recent natural calf and the calf must be registered by show date and have the original registration certificate at check in.
3. Only one person at a time shall lead animals into the show ring.
4. Exhibitors who participate in shows that accept premium monies contributed by the American Angus Association are subject to the Association Rules as found in the Breeders Reference Guide of the Association. These rules are found in Part 2; Association Rules; Rule 800 series; including Rule 800-810. These rules can be found at www.angus.org.
5. Altering the conformation and/or appearance of an animal for exhibition is prohibited. This includes the use of chin straps, covering of white skin, false tail heads (or use of any false hair), with the exception of false tail switches. The use of graphite, powders, hemp or other similar substances used externally are also prohibited. Other prohibited products include those used internally such as steroids, illegal or unlicensed pharmaceuticals or artificial filling. Any animal found to be in violation will be barred from showing.
6. At any show for which the American Angus Association appropriates funds toward the payment of premiums, no exhibitors, individuals assisting exhibitors or member owners at such show shall be allowed to use any coloring agents, on any animal exhibited. The Association may adopt and implement various tests designed to monitor this prohibition, including but not limited to a "white towel" or "white glove" test. No aerosol cans or other pressurized containers will be allowed in designated make up areas.
7. All animals exhibited are subject to DNA marker or blood type test to verify accuracy of parentage as covered under the Association Rules and for other testing as required by the individual show.

Authorized representatives of the Association have the authority to enforce the rules set forth herein as well as in the Association Rules, including the barring of a registered animals from a livestock show at which it is to be shown, if there are reasonable grounds to believe a violation has occurred.

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. All animals entered will have at least one owner on record as a Regular or Junior Member of RAAA at time of show's published entry deadline.
2. Be registered with RAAA and have Official Registered Status and meet all requirements for Category 1A or 1B at time of show's published entry deadline.
3. Entries are accepted with the understanding that each exhibitor agrees to conform to the Rules and Regulations of the RAAA. Enforcement will be at the discretion of the RAAA authorized representatives and may include barring an animal or exhibitor.
4. Exhibitors shall exhibit sportsmanship and professional behavior in and around the show ring. Abusive, discourteous, or threatening behavior towards judges, show officials, fellow exhibitors or RAAA authorized representatives will not be tolerated.
5. All animals must have legible tattoos, which match the Animal ID and Herd Prefix as recorded in the RAAA database prior to processing.
6. Each animal will be exhibited in its natural conformation and structure and without any alterations or modifications, with the exception of acceptable fitting and grooming practices.
7. The use of coloring agents, paints, and/or the addition of any hair or hair-like substances will not be allowed.
8. All bulls 9 months of age or older on publicized date of show must be shown with a nose lead.
9. After processing, should the number of entries in any class exceed practically, authorized representative of the RAAA have the authority to "split" classes according to age and at the date of birth that best encourages fair competition.
10. Any calf exhibited at the side of their dam in a cow/calf class may be exhibited in an individual class subject to all pertinent RAAA Show Rules and Classification.

EXHIBITORS' RIGHT TO PROTEST OR APPEAL

- A. It is the explicit intent of the RAAA that RAAA sponsored show, the conformation and breeding value of animals being exhibited and the conduct of exhibitors present a positive image for the Red Angus breed. RAAA's Show Regulations and Classifications serve as the primary means to ensure competition is fair, unbiased and free of unethical conduct and practices.
- B. The RAAA will play no role in the resolution of conflicts, appears, protest or complaints resulting from shows not sponsored by the RAAA.

Exhibitors must have official Registration Certificates or Incomplete Registration Certificates on all entries available for inspection by show officials.
