RULES:

1. Entries are open to the world. Entries are not limited, but each exhibitor will be eligible for only two premiums in each class.
2. Ownership of all animals exhibited in this show must be shown on the registration or transfer certificate as belonging to the exhibitor. Applications of transfer will not be accepted without a telegram from the Association verifying the registration; a copy of the telegram will be retained by the Livestock Office. Animals not register will not be accepted for entry.
- ➔ 3. All animals must comply with the health provision prescribed by the Tennessee Department of Agriculture, Division of Animal industries published in the front of the fair catalog.
4. Exhibitors must furnish their own feed, bedding and equipment and all animals must be kept in the place assigned by the Dairy Department Head. If an exhibitor is not in place by the arrival deadline, the allotted space is forfeited and may be reassigned at the discretion of the Dairy Department Head. REFUNDS WILL NOT BE GIVEN!

5. SPECIAL RULING FOR HOLSTEIN EXHIBITORS: "That a cow shown dry must be reported dry on the DHIA forms or reported by show management to the appropriate official for testing within the state or province in which the cow is tested, as well as the Holstein Association, and the lactation credits be terminated the day of the show.:
6. The milking parlor will be open. If you bring your own milking machine-excess milk must be poured in designated container-not down the drains. Any deviance from this rule is subject to forfeiture of premiums by exhibitor and removal from fairgrounds.
7. SUBSTITUTIONS: Substitutions will be allowed in the same Class with the same owner. In addition, one open substitution out of class, one per breed, and only with that breed, will be allowed.
